A project initiated by one of our
Partner Charitable Organizations

BONGA Project Tanzania

BONGA means “let’s talk”. It is a ten months circle project that empowers out-of-school adolescents aged 13 - 19 years who, due to various reasons, have not progressed in the formal education system. The project enables the youth to become productive and respected members of the society contrary remaining in the streets to become more vulnerable and being considered as a burden to their families.

Instaraising’s Approach

Instaraising's approach is simple yet powerful. We have developed an intuitive search engine that simplifies the process of finding charities aligned with your passions.

We understand that making a difference should be effortless, so we've made donating to charitable causes easier than ever. With just a few clicks, you can discover and support the charities that touch your heart, contributing to our purpose of alleviating Extreme Poverty worldwide.

Let’s start a new journey with more passion to serve the Humanity.
